

Family Magazine presents

The 2010 Summer Reading Contest!

While reading books is a gift in itself, sometimes children need an extra incentive to read, especially in the face of all the media choices they have today. Summer is the perfect time for kids to read books of their choosing, and keep up their reading skills while school is out.

To encourage your children to read this summer, we are offering them the power to win prizes simply by reading! Prizes include toys, games, tickets . . . and more books! Winning is simple. To win a prize, your child must read four age-appropriate books, write a brief summary of each book, and send them to us!

And with all that reading, everyone is a winner.

Rules:

(official rules also at www.familymagazinegroup.com/pdf/SummerReadingContest0610.pdf)

The contest begins June 1, 2010.

To earn a prize, each child must send in a short summary each for FOUR books he or she reads, along with the parent's signature certifying the child read the books. All summaries must be written in the child's handwriting and include a phone number, address and PARENTS' EMAIL.

The contest closes August 31, 2010, or while prize supplies last.

Please send book summaries to:
